MSOP's Graduate Program has expanded to include Apologetics (August, 2025), Broadcasting (January, 2026), and Leadership (January, 2026), in addition to the Graduate Program in Missions already underway.

MSOP is one of the works of the church as a part of the church's Bible teaching under the oversight of the church.

Nathan Liddell, of Abingdon, VA, Director of The Daily Apologist, teaching "Methods And Issues In Apologetics," the first class in the Graduate Program in Apologetics.

Students in the new Graduate Program in Apologetics. From L to R: Brendan Carr, Dustin Pool, Jacob Kennedy, Zachariah Lockhart, and Odane Brissett. The classroom was still undergoing some finishing touches.

Tony Lawrence, of McMinnville, TN, who received his Masters Degree in Apologetics, studying under brother Thomas B. Warren, teaches "Logic and Epistemology."

Kevin Rutherford, Dean of Admissions, teaches "The Existence of God" to the Graduate class in Apologetics.

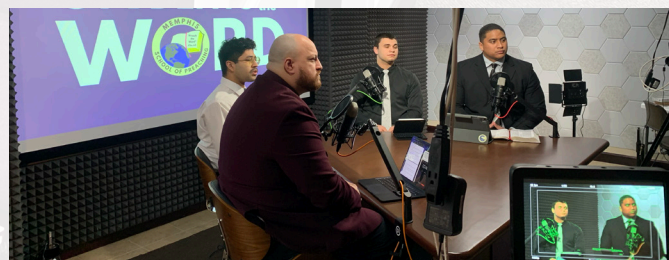

Dan Cates, Dean of Apologetics, instructs the Graduate class in Apologetics on, "Apologetics Research and Writing."

The Motto of the Memphis School of Preaching entrance to the Edifice. Our emphasis has been, and continues to be, preaching. In 2025, we will have the motto, "Preach the Word, and the Word will flourish."

Drew, Andrew, Caleb, and Waylon prepare to discuss the divine nature of Jesus as defended by the book of John. In the actual recording, none of the background equipment is visible.

Israel from Texas, Rafael from Alabama, Jacob from Tennessee, and Tony from Hawaii, are in the shot as framed by camera #1. In the background one can see some of the floor lighting that is used to illuminate the background. Some of the studio lighting is also in view on the ceiling.

Ravan from Jamaica, Nico from Jamaica, and John. All are part of the special desired.

the Forest Hill Church of Christ, teaching program, and is under Forest Hill eldership.

School of Preaching in the Educational Building.

It continues to be, on Gospel we still train men to, and Change the World.”

from Jamaica, Alex from Texas, from Jamaica, and Desroy from prepare to discuss the nature as pointed out in the book of above them is a projector with a lens that projects any image behind the speakers.

Part of the first year class, comprised of men who have come from many different states, and several foreign nations, to prepare themselves for a lifetime of service—all of whom share a burning desire to “Preach the Word.”

Logan Peters, of Warrior, AL, leads singing, in Chapel, on the opening day of the 2025-26 school year.

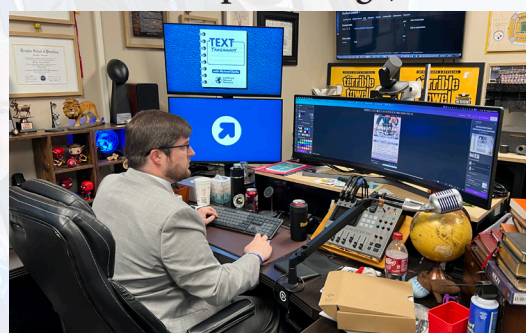

Willie Bagwell, of Thyatira, MS leads singing in chapel. Each school day, at MSOP, begins with chapel at 8:30 AM.

Ebenezer of Ghana, Daniel of Venezuela, Bernie of Panama, and Emmanuel of Ghana preparing to discuss a specific assignment from the Gospel of John. The sound panels were graciously donated by the Warners Chapel congregation in Clemmons, NC, while the broadcast desk was very kindly donated by GBN and the church in Southaven, MS.

Billy Bland, Associate Director, shares the wisdom and experience of a half-century of preaching, with the second year class in Homiletics (which means, “the art of preaching”).

Michael Clarke, who works in Recruiting and Digital Promotions, busy designing the promo for the Seminar on “Tactics” at MSOP.

Daniel, serving as the producer, turns on all the equipment, performs the sound checks, and then frames and focuses the camera images for each of the three cameras.

COME STUDY THE BIBLE WITH US!

Currently, MSOP's classes include almost 50 students from 10 countries and several states. Large, comfortable, state of the art classrooms, enhance their study, as they prepare themselves to preach. Well qualified teachers, most of whom have been preaching and teaching for decades, are able to help each student with sound, personal, hands-on instruction. The School's curriculum consists of necessary subjects for a faithful man to learn to be able to preach the Gospel with "success." Students study only the Bible, and Bible related subjects, along with practical training enabling them to do their best as Gospel preachers.
